Meat CSA subscribers receive six monthly deliveries of sustainably raised meats from Riverview Farms. CSA boxes primarily include Riverview's Berkshire pork and grassfed beef. To keep things interesting, we sometimes include pastured chicken. On a rare basis, we also like to include other hard-to-come-by yet delicious proteins like sustainable and local lamb, a hunk of cheese, or seafood.

Choose between two subscription sizes: 10 or 16 pounds per month. The 10 pound monthly share generally includes 30-40% ground meats (sausages, ground beef), a roast cut, and steak or chop cuts. The 16 pound monthly share usually has a lower percentage of ground meats, and is more likely to include other cuts like ribs and steaks.

On the designated delivery date each month, your order will be available for pickup at the drop point of your choosing (see page 2 for locations). Meat is delivered frozen, packed in cardboard boxes with insulating liners. Each box is marked with the customer's name name.

Option #1: 10 pounds monthly

$410 for 6 month subscription, which is equivalent to $6.50/lb or $68/month.

EXAMPLE:

- 3.5 pounds pork sausage (loose, Italian sausage, or bratwurst)
- 2.5 pounds pork or beef roasts
- 1.5 pounds pork chops or steak
- 2.5 pounds ground beef

Option #2: 16 pounds monthly

$770 for 6 month subscription, which is equivalent to $7.50/lb or $128/month.

EXAMPLE:

- 3.5 pounds pork sausage (loose, Italian sausage, or bratwurst)
- 5 pounds roasts (2 roasts)
- 1.5 pounds pork chops
- 2 pounds steak
- 4 pounds ground beef

Contents do vary from month to month, since we try to keep things interesting for you! We do our best to meet the total weight advertised, weighing each box individually and adjusting as needed.

Admittedly, participating in a meat CSA is different than going to the grocery store to purchase a ribeye. But what you lose in choice, you gain in price. Sometimes, you'll get a ribeye in your share for less than half the $15/lb you'd pay at the grocery store. Sometimes you'll get ribs. All the time, you'll get the same tasty and healthy meats found in the best restaurants in Atlanta for a per-pound price that's lower than what you'd pay if you were buying by the cut. Subscribing makes it easy to source your family's meat from a sustainable farm!

Commitment & Payment

We ask for a minimum commitment of six months. Though we definitely appreciate when subscriptions are paid for up front, you can pay in installments one or three months. If you're paying in installments, you'll need to make sure that your account has a minimum balance of $68.33 (10lb subscription) or $128.33 (16lb subscription) by the Sunday before each month's delivery in order to receive a box. Subscriptions with less than the minimum balance will not receive a delivery that month.

Pickup

You're responsible for picking up your subscription on delivery day. Delivery dates are accessible via your account, and are included in reminders. Your box will be have a label with your name on it. Many of our host locations do not have the space to store your box overnight; if you can't make it there, find someone who can pick up for you – and give them a pound of sausage to say thank you! Shares not picked up by the end of the business on delivery day are donated to the host/store.

Add-On Orders

Meat CSA customers can purchase additional items by the cut at a 10% discount over retail prices. Add-ons are delivered with your monthly CSA box; you receive an invoice by email the week following delivery, based on the actual weights delivered. Payment is due before the next month's delivery. Add-on items include all of the standard cuts, ground meat, and sausages. Special requests may also be accommodated.

Customization

Unfortunately, we can't customize boxes! The CSA model works well for the farm because we pack a lot of boxes that are similar at the same time, and don't have to keep track of individual orders – other than add-on items. The discounted pricing that you pay for the CSA subscription reflects the lack of customization.
